2. Relevant information and lawful ground for data processing

A. Recipients of the personal data

Your personal data will be stored on GIZ's internal servers and only be shared with Access to Insurance Initiative staff, relevant GIZ country projects and Reos Partners. Your personal data will not be shared with third parties.

B. Data transmission

Your personal data will not be transmitted to a third country outside the European Union.

C. Period of storage

In general, your personal data is stored for up to three years following the end of the year in which the programme ends. The programme is currently due to end October 2024. However, it is possible that the programme will be extended.

D. Legal Basis

The legal basis for processing your personal information is your consent (Art. 6(1)e GDPR). Consenting to the following data processing by GIZ is voluntary, and you may chose not to participate without being exposed to any sanctions.

Under no circumstance will your personal data be used for commercial purposes. The data will be used exclusively for the purposes described in the statement. Any other use of your personal data will always be subject to further consent.

3. Your rights as a data subject:

You have the right to withdraw consent at any time by sending a simple email to lab@a2ii.org. This does not affect the lawfulness of processing up to the time of withdrawal of consent. In the case of withdrawal, it is not possible to participate in the online documentation.

With regard to the processing of your personal data, you have the following rights:

- You can request a copy of your personal data and/or notification of whether and how GIZ processes your personal data (Article 15 of the GDPR).
- If your personal data are incorrect or incomplete, you may request their correction or completion (Article 16 of the GDPR).
- If necessary, you have the right to request the deletion of your personal data; for example, if they are no longer required for the purposes they were originally collected for or if they have been processed differently (Article 17 of the GDPR).
- In certain circumstances that may arise from your particular situation, if necessary, you have the right to object to the processing of your personal data (Article 21 of the GDPR). In addition, in certain circumstances, you have the right to request limitation of the processing of your personal data (Article 18 of the GDPR).

The above rights do not apply without exception. For example, GIZ is not permitted to erase your personal data if it is legally required to retain the data.

Should you have any questions or concerns regarding your personal data, please contact the data protection officer at: datenschutzbeauftragter@giz.de.

If, in your opinion, the processing of your personal data infringes the GDPR or any other EU or German data protection law, you can file a complaint with a data protection authority. The responsible data protection authority for GIZ is:

Federal Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information,

Graurheindorfer Str. 153, 53117 Bonn, Germany
poststelle@bfdi.bund.de
