AGENDA
INCLUSIVE INSURANCE (MICROINSURANCE)
TRAINING PROGRAM FOR SUPERVISORS IN ASIA

MAY 7 - 10, 2019
BANGKOK, THAILAND

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF INSURANCE SUPERVISORS

access to insurance initiative

Global Leadership in Financial Supervision
Objectives: This regional program is designed to help participants examine topics on:
- The importance of taking a proportionate approach to regulation and supervision to improve access to insurance services and ensure low-income consumers are adequately protected.
- Recent practices and ideas from selected jurisdictions that have advanced the field of microinsurance.

Expected Outcomes: The Toronto Centre uses a highly interactive approach to teaching to reinforce learning on both the technical issues as well as leadership skills. Through the use of case studies, lectures and exercises, participants will be equipped to better understand:
- The importance of promoting financial inclusion in their home jurisdictions
- How sound supervisory principles can be applied in a manner that encourages the development of an inclusive insurance market
- The importance of innovation for inclusive insurance markets
- How to promote financial inclusion by encouraging supervisors to be adaptable in their roles to properly respond to innovative solutions
- Prudential and market conduct issues in overseeing inclusive insurance markets. Moreover, throughout the week and with the guidance of Toronto Centre’s program leaders, participants will put into practice Toronto Centre’s action planning for dealing with challenges faced at the workplace as well as stakeholder management communication concepts. This is to enable participants to develop their own action plans to implement in their home agencies when they return.

Medium of Instruction: The course will be conducted in English.

Target Audience: The course is targeted at middle-to-senior level officials from regulatory and supervisory agencies involved in the regulation and supervision of microinsurance in Asia.

PROGRAM LEADER BIOGRAPHIES
BANGKOK, THAILAND, MAY 7-10, 2019

Carolyn Barsulai is a junior advisor at the Access to Insurance Initiative (A2ii). She joined the A2ii in 2017 and supports A2ii’s ongoing implementation and capacity building activities. In collaboration with the IAIS, she is furthermore taking lead in organising the A2ii-IAIS consultation calls which are bi-monthly webinars that provide a peer learning platform for insurance supervisors to hear from experts on topical issues affecting the insurance industry.

Prior to joining the A2ii, Carolyn worked at the UNFCCC as an intern with the National Adaptation Plans and Policy Unit where the work broadly focused on supporting least developing countries (LDCs) to develop their national adaptation plans and policies and building resilience for adaptation to climate change. She holds an M.A degree in Governance and Public Policy from the University of Passau. Carolyn speaks English and intermediate German.

Shayne Rose Bulos is a Certified Public Accountant and an MBA graduate who works towards Disaster Risk Insurance & Inclusive Insurance in countries such as Indonesia, Mongolia, Pakistan, Philippines, Nepal, Sri Lanka, & Vietnam. Currently, she is a Senior Advisor (Insurtech) at the German Development Cooperation and Consultant. Before that, she worked at the Microinsurance Division of the Philippine Insurance Commission. As an active Toastmasters International officer, she served as Area Director, President, VP-Education, and VP-Public Relations. Additionally, she self-published a poetry book and authored financial inclusion manuals, and the 2016 case study on The Philippine Approach to Inclusive Insurance Market Development.

Michael Hafeman is an actuary and independent international consultant. He provides policy and implementation assistance to national, regional, and international organizations on a variety of issues related to the insurance and pensions sectors. He builds capacity on financial regulation and supervision and contributes to the sound development and operation of financial services by advising governments on a range of other issues. Mr. Hafeman chairs Toronto Centre’s Insurance and Pensions Advisory Board. He also serves as a member of the International Relations Council and the Public Statements Committee of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries.

Mr. Hafeman previously worked in the Canadian and U.S. financial sectors, including serving as Assistant Superintendent at the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions Canada, managing partner of the Toronto pension practice of a major consulting firm, and president of a life insurance company. He has also served as a member of the Public Interest Oversight Board, which oversees the public interest activities of the International Federation of Accountants, and Canada’s Auditing and Assurance Standards Oversight Council.

Mr. Hafeman received a B.A. in Mathematics and Economics from the University of Minnesota – Duluth in 1974 and became a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries in 1977, a Member of the American Academy of Actuaries in 1979, and a Fellow of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries in 1990. He was recognized as a Distinguished Fellow by the International Association of Insurance Supervisors in 2007 and as a member of the Swenson Academy of Science and Engineering by the University of Minnesota – Duluth in 2009.

Hooi Eng Phang is Special Advisor at the Toronto Centre. Her work includes advising and assisting the CEO in the design and implementation of leadership programs as well as strategy development, project planning and overseeing the quality of program delivery. Before joining the Toronto Centre, she was the Executive Director responsible for 12 countries in the South-East Asia Voting Group at the International Monetary Fund. Prior to that, she was the Senior Director of the Economics Department of Bank Negara Malaysia, where she worked since 1984. Besides policy-oriented research work at the Economics Department, her experience included a two-year stint at the HR Development Centre where she was responsible for the conduct, design and budgeting of training courses for BNM staff. Hooi Eng has also worked as an Education Officer in Malaysia and a Consultant for the United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific in Bangkok, Thailand.

Oliver Reichert, for the past 15 years, has assisted insurance and pensions regulators and supervisors of emerging countries in such matters as the implementation of risk-based supervision methodology, risk-based solvency regulations, and ICP self-assessments. This assistance has been provided through The World Bank, FIRST Initiative, GIZ, the Asian Development Bank, the Toronto Centre, and also directly to the country supervisors.

Oliver is an accountant, a Fellow of the CPAs of Australia and a Fellow of the Corporate Governance Institute of Australia. He is a former independent director of Global Reinsurance Company of Australia and was an executive director of Oceanic Life Limited and Oceanic General Limited, where he also held several senior financial and operational positions.

Juan Paolo Roxas is a lawyer and currently the Acting Division Manager of the Microinsurance Division of the Philippines’ Insurance Commission.

Before assuming the functions and duties in the Microinsurance Division, he worked in several Divisions of the Insurance Commission by serving as the Acting Division Manager of the Public Assistance and Mediation Division and working in the Conservatorship, Receivership and Liquidation Division.
